MEN WHO HELPED MAKE PORTSMOUTH

Brief Sketches of Their Lives, Which Should Be An Inspiration to All; Opportunities in Portsmouth for the Hard-working, Conscientious Young Man Just As Good As Anywhere Else in The World

The story of the newsboy who rose to position of eminence has been the favorite theme of authors of boys' books of fiction for several generations. In the case of W. C. Hazlebeck the story is a true one.

Born in Cincinnati, June 10, 1883, William C. Hazlebeck's family moved to Piqua while he was still very young. At the age of 10 the little boy was sent to the Cincinnati Times Star in Piqua and when in 1896, the family moved to Portsmouth, William found time to carry the Times Star in the mornings, attend high school during the day, and manage a paper route for the Portsmouth Evening Times after his school hours were over. After graduating from high school he went to work in the Selby factory for $4.50 per week. Then he decided to take up the study of law and entered Ohio State University. Every summer saw him back at work in the factory, and when, in 1906, he left the university he went to work for a salary of $25 per month. "Not many college boys would do that now," Mr. Hazlebeck smiled. Deciding to enter the building and loan business Mr. Hazlebeck became associated with Attorney Frank B. Finney, in the Royal Savings and Loan Co., founded February 8, 1890, and since the latter's death in 1910 has been manager of the company. In the past 14 years the assets of the company have increased from $356,000 to $2,135,000. Mr. Hazlebeck is also manager of the Hazlebeck Company, handling real estate and insurance.

For 15 years Mr. Hazlebeck has been clerk of the board of education and as a member of the Masons, Knights of Pythias and Kiwanis Club, has taken an active interest in civic affairs. He is a member of the First Evangelical church, where he has been superintendent of the Sunday School for eleven years. The four Hazlebeck children, Carlene, Mary, William and Ruth are all registered in the local public schools.

A mother who was interested in everything he did and who helped "push" and a firm determination to succeed, were the two most vital factors in his development, according to Mr. Hazlebeck. "Know what you want—and go after it" is the principle upon which he has built. He believes that opportunities in Portsmouth are more than double what they were when he came here 27 years ago, but he agrees with most of the successful business men of today, that the boy who has just finished his education must be willing to start at the bottom. On February the fifth, Mr. Hazlebeck was married to Miss Helen Catherine Belliz of Marietta, a former teacher in the Portsmouth schools.

SPLIT IN REPUBLICAN RANKS LOOMS AS RESULT OF ROW OVER DAUGHERTY'S RETENTION

DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Attorney General Daugherty will have his day in court and he will also have his day in the cabinet, but he will do so when he is satisfied that his resignation will not be interpreted as a confirmation of the various accusations made against him by members of the Senate.

At the moment, President Coolidge is loath to force a decision. The lines of thought, each seemingly logical and each based upon what appears to be the interests of the best interests of the Republican party, have been impressed upon the President.

One is that Mr. Coolidge will help himself and the Republican party by permitting Mr. Daugherty to resign, thus making a clean sweep with respect to all persons in his cabinet who have been mentioned in connection with the oil controversy.

The other is that the Republican party is on trial and not Mr. Coolidge and that whatever he does to weaken the prestige of the party by allowing Mr. Daugherty to resign under fire will react against the Republican party and therefore against him if he is the candidate in the coming election. Those who are urging the first course are also Mr. Coolidge and believe they are advancing his political fortunes. His Massachusetts friends are eager for him to win and are anxious to see him enter the campaign unencumbered. It is not that they love Mr. Daugherty less but they love Mr. Coolidge more.

The practical politicians like Chairman John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who are urging that the Republican party stand up and fight and not let mere accusations stand are beginning to believe it is time to run the tide by a mass attack on their political foe.

While very little has been said about it, there is a chance that the split over the Daugherty question may make certain organizations

Complete "Moonshine Library" Found

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—A complete "moonshine library" of books and formulas for manufacturing every kind of drink from vodka to sherry, together with a brewery, distillery and a chemical annex, containing tinctures, extracts and adulterants, was seized by the police yesterday in a malt and hop store.

Daugherty To Remain Until Granted Hearing

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Attorney General Daugherty's announced determination to remain in the cabinet for the present, at least, spurred Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, to press for quick action in the senate today on his resolution calling for an investigation of Mr. Daugherty's administration.

"As soon as this investigation is completed and regardless of its outcome, Mr. Daugherty will be expected to quit the cabinet. He refused yesterday to retire voluntarily while the inquiry is pending, and President Coolidge decided not to force him to do so."

"Mr. Daugherty was fully advised at yesterday's succession of conferences regarding the conclusions reached by the president but he took the position that he would not resign unless Mr. Coolidge was willing to make formal imperative demand for his retirement. The attorney general left for Chicago yesterday after a last minute conference with Mr. Coolidge. Strict secrecy was maintained about his plan to leave and it was not until three hours later that a statement he had prepared previously with reference to his retention of office was made public."

PLAN VOTE ON REVENUE MEASURE TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Attacks on the revenue bill were resumed today by the house with leaders pressing hard to conclude reading of the measure for amendments before tonight's vote on a final vote tomorrow. Miscellaneous excise taxes were in order after a vote today on an amendment providing for cuts in the taxes on automobile trucks and tires, parts and accessories. Little contention has developed over the excise taxes, many of which were thrown out by the Ways and Means Committee in framing the bill, and the main fight of the day centered in the effort of the Democrats to have their income rate schedules, already vetoed into the bill, made retroactive for one year in place of the amendment put into the measure by the Republicans providing for a flat 25 reduction on the 1923 income taxes payable this year.

Negotiations yesterday by the Republican organization and insurgent leaders for a compromise income rate schedule that could command enough votes to remove the Democratic rates from the bill on the final vote failed of definite agreement, but the way was left open for further meetings today.

Italian Emits Blue Light Rays With Radiographic Properties

PARIS, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Interesting tests of a medium claimed to possess a mysterious luminosity—the emission of blue light rays with radiographic properties—are being made by Dr. Gustave Geley, of the Metaphysical Institute here. The medium is an Italian named Ertio, brought to Paris recently for a more searching examination after experiments in Italy had failed to solve the question whether the subject's peculiar properties were natural or produced by some artificial means.

Dr. Geley claims that he subjected Ertio to the most rigorous tests. The medium was stripped and examined and then placed in a darkened room, and put under the x-ray to make such other tests as were possible.

Dr. Geley was aided in his experiments by Dr. Charles Richet, noted member of the Académie de Médecine. The examination declared that Ertio, when placed in a darkened room, appears to be surrounded by a kind of halo while every now and then a clearly defined fan-shaped ray of light is projected from the left side. Occasionally, also, a cone of light appears above the head. It is claimed that this light passes through opaque objects and that photographic plates in sealed boxes had images registered on them when developed as if they had been exposed in a camera in daylight.

Sugar Famine On Kelley's Island

SANDUSKY, O., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Kelley's Island today was back in war time rationing of sugar, each prospective purchaser being limited to two pounds. This was made necessary because of the supply running low.

The scarcity largely is the result of an automobile transporting a considerable quantity from the main land to Kelley's Island, eight miles out in Lake Erie, breaking through the ice and going to the bottom several days ago.

COLUMBUS, O., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Governor Donahey announced today that he would ask Attorney General Crabbe to furnish him with a copy of his opinion yesterday holding that there is no legal authority to appoint "hard men" prohibition enforcement officers. The prohibition enforcement officers, the governor was to confer with State Prohibition Director McDonald at 10:30 a. m.

today on the issue. After the chief executive goes over the written opinion of Mr. Crabbe a statement outlining his stand on the question is expected. (Continued on Page Eleven)

Proposes All American Bible

NEW YORK, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—An all-American Bible is proposed by the Rev. Charles Francis Potter, pastor of the West Side Unitarian Church. He said today that his modern Bible would cover the details at its first meeting next Sunday.

Mr. Potter cites Abraham Lincoln as having fully as great a spiritual appeal as Jesus of Nazareth to the average American; Jane Addams in the new American Bible would replace Deborah as a leader in the warfare against social wrongs; the writings of Washington, Adams and Jefferson, he declared, could be preserved as the American pentateuch; Woodrow Wilson, he says, is the modern "Prince of Peace," and sacrificed his life in an attempt to induce this country to enter the League of Nations. Finally Mr. Potter asserts there are many American social reformers whose teachings and writings can be formed into books of an American Holy Writ.

Ah! Ha! Akron Has Cars Back

AKRON, O., February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Street cars were in operation here again today under terms of a franchise signed by city council late last night. The city has been without car service since February 1, when the Northern Ohio Traction and Light Company was ordered to discontinue local operations by city officials.

Under terms of the new franchise, the traction company will charge a five cent fare and penny transfer. A temporary ordinance for a period of sixty days, passed as an emergency, is now effective. Council also passed a permanent ordinance which will continue until December 4.

Vote of council was unanimous. Buses brought to Akron under Mayor D. C. Rybolt's motorization plan, will continue operations in competition with the traction company for sixty days.

Council finance and utilities committees will meet jointly today to determine what action shall be taken to cover losses encountered by bus operators in their efforts to relieve the city in its transportation emergency. One operator declared last night he stood to lose $50,000.

Car service this morning was only partially resumed. The N. O. T. and L. has not been able to get all of the 800 men, discharged February 1, back, while it will take at least a day to clear some of the tracks over which cars have not operated in four weeks.

Willis Says He Has No Idea of Identity of "Willis" Mentioned In Telegrams

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—(By the United Press)—Another presidential candidate, Senator Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, was definitely involved today in the senate's inquiry into the oil scandal.

Underwood's name was first brought in when the senate committee found a telegram to E. B. McLean, Washington publisher, from one of his employees here stating that A. Mitchell Palmer, former attorney general, was going to ask Underwood "to work" on Senator Walsh, leading investigator of the committee, to get him to refrain from questioning McLean about a $100,000 loan to Fall.

Walsh, at first denied that Underwood had ever mentioned McLean to him, but this morning revealed a conversation he said he had forgotten but which Underwood reminded him of.

Underwood in that conversation asked Walsh if McLean would be called. Walsh said he told Underwood that the committee had authorized him to question McLean at Palm Beach.

Underwood was again asked if a telegram to McLean from an employee on the Washington Post, McLean's paper, saying it had been advised that Underwood had been in an effort to have Walsh "call it off."

In this telegram it was added, however, that the effort through Underwood was not considered of any use.

Production of this evidence, thus definitely putting Underwood's name among those who were to be approached in an effort to halt the oil investigation on the eve of the disclosures which later opened up the whole scandal, came after the senate committee had decided to question A. Mitchell Palmer as to his part in what committee members feel was an attempt to stifle the whole inquiry.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—(By Associated Press)—Senator Willis Republican, Ohio, issued a formal statement today declaring he had no idea who was referred to in telegrams placed before the oil committee, saying that "Willis" was concerning himself in the oil inquiry on behalf of Edward B. McLean.

"I have been handed what purports to be copies of two telegrams sent by John or John to Edward B. McLean at Palm Beach, Florida, in which telegrams reference is made to a man named Willis," said the statement. "So far as I can recall, I do not know John or John. I haven't the slightest idea as to what either of these telegrams refers."

The two telegrams which mentioned "Willis" both were signed by "Johns."

The first, dispatched on January 15, said: "Willis saw party this morning. Willis said that the party was in a friendly mood and nothing further would be requested from your end. Harry out of city. I have appointment at 11 o'clock with Eyed. He expects something. Will also see party I returned with."

The second dated January 23, read: "Willis is in full possession of matter. Battle of wills between Lambert and self this was accomplished. Charlie Buchanan is leaving tonight. The duck is leaving at 12:35 a. m. My advice to you is not to acquiesce the latter party with our new code system. After you telephoned this, morning instructions Lambert, the duck and myself, the duck at once telephoned his wife and according to Mary Quigley, who listened in on line, said: 'I have them where I want them. I will make them bow to me before I am through with them. I am turning over this stuff without receipt. But you know my intention.' Mrs. Duckstein, according to Mary Quigley, who I trust with any secrets you or I may have, informs me that Mrs. Duck said 'Billy, you have the right idea at last.'"

"Use this information as you see fit. Am I to turn over to W. O. D. any and all information that I have in reference to new code? Am I to accept his verbal instructions from you that you have ordered such or am I to keep book in my sole possession until you tell me yourself in person that I am to explain in detail code? Remember, 'JOHNS.'"

Frequent mention of "Curtis" in the McLean telegrams today led Senator Curtis, of Kansas, the assistant Republican leader, to explain that two of McLean's men called on him one morning and said that because of the illness of the publisher he preferred to make a statement instead of appearing before the oil committee.

"They asked that I see Senator Walsh," Senator Curtis said, "and see if Mr. McLean could be excused from being subpoenaed. I suggested that they get some one on the Democratic side and to my best recollection suggested that they see Senator Robinson or Senator Underwood."

"That's all there is about it, except that afterward I saw Senator Underwood and he told me the subpoena had already been issued. I never saw Senator Walsh about the matter."

A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney general in the Wilson administration, was called before the Senate Oil Committee. The committee so determined today before it resumed the reading of additional telegrams sent to Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, at Palm Beach, concerning the oil inquiry.

Senator Bill, Democrat, Washington, insisted that Palmer should be called, saying he had been the "go-between" in the delivery of McLean's messages to the committee.

In telegrams read today, John Major, McLean employee here, reported to Underwood that he was busy with Underwood, Curtis and "Zev."

"Zev" was understood by committee men to refer to J. W. Zevilly, personal counsel for Harry F. Sinclair.

Ira Bennett, editor of the Post, telegraphed McLean on January 3 that he and Major saw "Curtis," who promised to see "Lenroot."

Walsh Underwood, the telegram said, "to see Underwood. We saw Underwood who, promised to speak to Walsh, but he hinted that it would not do any good."

In placing the telegrams in the record the committee members made no announcement of identification of the persons referred to, leaving the public to draw its own conclusions.

A telegram signed "Johns," sent to McLean, said, "Willis" saw "party this morning."

"Willis reported party in friendly mood," the message said, adding "Harry is out of the city."

"Before proceeding," interrupted Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, "I desire to say that Senator Underwood called a few moments ago on the telephone and said he had read something in the newspapers this morning he had endeavored to dissuade me from my purpose to subject Mr. McLean to examination, a conclusion drawn from some of the telegrams read yesterday. Walsh denies Underwood attempted to influence him."

"Senator Underwood never attempted to influence my conduct in the matter in any way. I have no recollection of Senator Underwood speaking to me on the subject except that one morning in the senate chamber he asked me if I had any objection to having inserted in the Congressional Record a letter to me by Mr. Palmer, and I said I had not."

"Senator Underwood in his conversation with me this morning said further that at the request of Mr. Bennett he had said something to me about whether he was out of the city."

Hopes of Career Gone; Girl Kills Self

NEW YORK, February 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Miss Valie Belasco Martin, an actress and short story writer, formerly of Seattle, took poison and died in a Riverside Drive apartment of her mother today. She left a note saying her act was due to her inability to obtain a stage engagement or dispose of any of her stories. She wrote that she was disgusted with the way dramatic employment agencies had wasted her time.

She came from Seattle in 1917, and played in "Very Good, Eddie," a musical comedy, several years ago. She was 25 years old.

The police said today they had learned from clippings found in Miss Martin's room that she was the cousin of David Belasco, veteran theatrical producer. It was through Mr. Belasco, they said, that the girl, who was a dancer and singer, obtained her first stage engagement.

Harris Guilty; Sent to The Pen

Frank Lee Harris, 33 years old, negro, claiming East St. Louis as his home, was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years by Judge Thomas, Thursday morning, when just before he was to be put on trial on a charge of gun toted, he changed his plea from "not guilty" to guilty.

Prosecutor Skelton exhibited a huge 44 caliber revolver which he claimed the grand jury investigation disclosed the defendant toted about and used as a "persuader" to capture stakes in card games whether he had the winning hand or not.

The court likened the big revolver to the "joker" in a pack of cards and the sentence meted out by the court was strong proof that the joke was on Harris, who was represented by Attorney Theo. K. Funk.

After the Harris case was disposed of Judge Thomas excused the petit jury until Friday morning when Jonas Cooper, 23, Upper Twin Creek young man, will be put on trial on a charge of shooting at with intent to kill county officers one night recently while they were in the liquor violators. Cooper, who will be defended by Attorneys Blair & Blair, is accused of firing upon the officers from ambush.

Belford Convicted; Sent to Reformatory

Ernest Belford, 27 years old, Jackson street carpenter, was sentenced to an indeterminate term to the Mansfield reformatory and fined $500 and costs yesterday after a Common Pleas court jury had brought in a verdict finding him guilty under an indictment charging him with manufacturing distilled liquor.

The prosecution relied almost wholly upon alleged admissions made by Belford to Federal Agent F. W. Ricker, the arresting officer, and Squire George S. Morgan, both of whom testified that the defendant manufactured liquor following his arrest on December 17 last, the result of a raid on his home and the finding of three gallons of moonshine liquor, parts of a still and a quantity of mash.

Belford admitted pleading guilty to a charge but claimed he thought he was admitting guilty of possession of liquor unlawfully. He denied that he had manufactured any liquor and asserted that the liquor found in his home was bought from a man in Kentucky.

The jury deliberated on the case almost an hour and after reaching a conclusion the jurors in a query to the court indicated they favored giving the accused a suspended sentence. Through John R. Lynn, the foreman, the jury asked if it was in the province of the jury to make a recommendation in connection with its verdict but Judge Thomas told them that such action would be useless as the law provides that no part of the sentence in such cases shall be suspended. Belford, who was defended by Attorney H. L. Small, will probably be taken to the Mansfield prison in a day or two.

New High Schools Created In the County

County Superintendent E. O. McCowan has just received from the State Department of Education charters for high schools in the county as follows: Minford, first grade; Rarden village, first grade; McDermott, second grade; Buena Vista, third grade, and Lyra, third grade. The school at Minford is in the new building.

When it is remembered that there was not a high school on the west side of the Scioto river in 1914, when County Superintendent McCowan assumed this work and that there were only two first grade high schools in the county and very limited high school advantages in all that was attempted, the present array of high schools in the county will speak for itself. A high school is now within the possible reach of all the boys and girls of the county.

Finds Prowler in Room

Mrs. Myrtle Lee 217 1-2 Market street was given the scare of her life about one o'clock Thursday morning when she awakened to find a man prowling about in her bedroom.

She had left the door to the room open as other members of the family were expected in from night work. When she awakened she could not see anyone but knew there was somebody in the room and called out what she wanted. A young man replied that he was just looking for a place to stay all night. She demanded that he get out and when he failed to make any move towards the door she demanded a second time that he leave. Mrs. Lee had a gun in an adjoining room but would have had to pass the stranger to get to it. As soon as he left she secured the gun but on looking out the front window could see no trace of him. Mrs. Lee occupies a flat over the Orlett grocery.

THE GUMPS—THE GOOD PROVIDER

New Service Company Takes Over Interests of The Portsmouth Street Railway Company

H. G. Bonner Is General Manager

Change in management of anything that affects the city's welfare so vitally as does the question of street railway and electric light service naturally focuses attention on the men who are to be at the head of the new organization. The Portsmouth Public Service Company Thursday took over the management of the Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Company, and H. G. Bonner became general manager.

A Times reporter found Mr. Bonner busy at his desk at an early hour this morning. As he rose to greet us we gained our first impression of a very business like man of medium height with nervous intensity of the efficient executive. Mr. Bonner sees a great future for Portsmouth, and for his company developing with Portsmouth. Coming to Portsmouth from Adrian, Michigan, where he has been the manager of a utility controlled by the Henry L. Doherty Co. of New York, which will operate the local company, Mr. Bonner plans to carry on in Portsmouth the usual practice of the Doherty Co. of active co-operation with city officials, chamber of commerce, and other bodies that are working for the upbuilding of the community.

"At present we are not in a position to make definite announcements," said Mr. Bonner. "There is a great deal to be done in getting an accurate knowledge of just what our problems here are to be. We do intend to go on with the construction work now started at the power plant, and we are contemplating further improvements."

Mr. and Mrs. Bonner are at present at the Washington Hotel, but plan to establish their own home as soon as they can find a suitable location.

In so far as is possible there will be few changes in the personnel of the organization. In his connection with the local utility, Mr. Bonner takes the position held in the Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Co. by Raymond D. York.

R. W. Curran will be the general superintendent of the company. Mr. Curran is expected here within the next few days from St. Joseph, Missouri, where he has been located.

Hugh H. Higgins, who for some time has been superintendent of the street railway company, becomes Secretary and Treasurer of the new company, with entire charge of the accounting and bookkeeping departments.

The controlling stock in the Portsmouth Public Service Co. is owned by the Virginia Power Co. of Cable Creek, which purchased the holdings of the Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Co. The Henry L. Doherty Co., which will operate the local utility, operates public utilities in many cities of the United States, including more than a dozen in Ohio. The Portsmouth system is the only Doherty operated system in this section of the state.

Postmaster Harsha Will Make Effort To Get New Postoffice or Have Present One Enlarged

Action may be taken before the present session of Congress which will give Portsmouth a new and modern post office, adequate to the present needs of the city. The rapid growth of the city, Postmaster W. H. Harsha is actively engineering the project. The proposed new building, if built, will occupy either the present site or one equally convenient to the business district, according to Mr. Harsha's plans.

Mr. Harsha has been planning a trip to Washington to personally set in motion the necessary machinery to bring about erection of the new building, but has thus far been unable to get away from his duties here. It is possible that he will make the trip in the near future.

In the meantime, the matter is being taken up with Congressman G. C. Kearns, and if consent of the treasury department, which holds title to postal property, is obtained, a bill is expected to be introduced, providing authorization by Congress and a sufficient appropriation. Inspectors from the treasury department are expected here in the near future. Postmaster Harsha indicates, to pass on the inadequacy of the present postal plant.

Elks Discuss New Home Proposition; Past Exalted Ruler's Night Observed

Discussion of a new home and the fact that past exalted ruler's night was to be observed, was the magnet which drew a large crowd to the regular meeting of the Portsmouth Lodge of Elks last night.

At the close of the meeting the trustees discussed various angles of a new home proposition, but no action was taken. It was stated that the lodge probably would remain in its present quarters until 1926, when the lease would expire.

It was the consensus of opinion that within the next year a movement would be started for the erection of a new home and one that would meet all the needs of the rapidly growing order.

Past Exalted Ruler's present, and assuming positions as officers of the lodge for the meeting, were: William J. Meyer, present district deputy, presided as Exalted Ruler; Karl Zeppner, Esteemed Leading Knight; S. Anselm, Skelton, Esteemed Loyal Knight; Stanley McCall, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; William Hyland, Esquire; Floyd Fuller, Inner Guard, and John Jones, Chaplain. Two others were present as guests, Orin B. Oakes and Harry W. Miller. Mr. Miller was the oldest Past Exalted Ruler of the lodge, and gave an interesting talk. He was in charge of the Portsmouth Lodge in 1900.

The six candidates initiated were: J. R. Wile, R. C. Spangler, Paul Copeland, William Slaughter, Byrd Bean and G. E. Exelting.

Exalted Ruler Edmund J. Krieger was authorized to appoint a committee of three to do the preliminary work incident to the plan of the lodge to acquire new quarters, after extended discussion of the project. Names of members will be announced by Mr. Krieger within a few days or at the next meeting, he indicates. This committee will have the work of finding means of financing the plan, possibilities of buying, leasing or building, and determining sites available.

The nominating committee submitted nominations of Howard L. Oakes, Exalted Ruler; George Anselm, Leading Knight; Howard Anselm, Loyal Knight; Leo D. Krieger, Lecturing Knight; O. B. Muller, Secretary; Geo. E. Krieger, Treasurer; Francis McDonald, Tyler; John F. Wilhelm, Trustee; Edmund J. Krieger, delegate to grand lodge, and William Hyland, alternate.

Election will be held at the next meeting. Members of the nominating committee are: Floyd Fuller, Harry Bertram and S. A. Skelton. A buffet luncheon was enjoyed at the close of the meeting. Entertainment was provided by the Elks' male quartette, composed of E. J. Krieger, Chester A. Higgins, Leo D. Krieger and R. Watson Goddard.

Mayor and Vice Mayor Discuss Needs of City Before Members of the Exchange Club

A good start on its program of considering "What Portsmouth Needs" and "What the Remedies Should Be" was taken by the Exchange club last evening, when Mayor Ralph Calvert and Albert Weghorst, president of council, were guests and outlined the position of the city administration on various matters.

Among concrete results of the meeting was the endorsement of plans to facilitate automobile traffic:

First—by the establishment of thoroughfares, vehicles on which are to be given the right of way, and anyone entering these streets must await a favorable opportunity.

Second—by enforcement of the 30 minute parking ordinance on Chillicothe street.

Indications are that these projects will receive immediate attention from the city council and administrative agencies.

Resurfacing of streets in need of such improvement also was discussed and Mayor Calvert assured members of the club that steps toward that end had already been taken. He improved the good news that the new owners of the street railway system had through their new general manager here assured the city that not only would the street car service be improved and increased, but that the matter of making other improvements such as taking care of the street railway's part of improving certain streets would be looked after. Mr. Calvert expressed the opinion that the next resurfacing would be of lower Second street, and that he felt sure the street railway would lay new ties, rails, etc., and put its tracks there in good shape to facilitate the improvement of the thoroughfare.

Street Cleaning.

The matter of street cleaning came up for discussion, and Mr. Weghorst explained that the city council had available only $500 for street cleaning.

He said he thought four teams, properly equipped could take care of the situation, but had no suggestions as to how the money for this purpose could be secured. No debate action was taken.

Mayor Calvert stated it was his opinion that overhead crossings rather than underground crossings would be favored by the city council, and an effort will be made to secure the sentiment of the community on this important project.

It was discussed at the meeting that the city council had under consideration a plan to increase the paving capacity of the city waterworks and to construct an auxiliary water main which will reach the city via Market Road, and will not go through New Boston.

Collection and disposal of garbage was considered briefly, and the city officials urged the Exchange Club to endeavor to arouse public sentiment to the need of an incinerating plant.

Removal of Market.

Mr. Weghorst said he believed that the city council would favor removal of the public market from the public square, where it has already been designated a fire hazard by state officials, to some suitable location. He left the impression that a new site would have to be considered along with the question of removal.

In discussing these matters Mayor Calvert called the attention of the club to the fact that the cost of municipal government in representative cities in the United States had about

Mr. Whitney Simpson, 920 W. Eighteenth street, Huntington, W. Va., who works for the Ford Motor Sales company, comes out with a very strong endorsement for Ka-di-ok. A recent interview with the Ka-di-ok expert, Mr. Simpson, revealed that he was in pretty bad shape with his stomach, liver and kidneys for upwards of four years and doctors medicine during all that time, but did not seem to make any progress towards recovery. As a matter of fact, I seemed to get worse rather than better and was in pretty bad shape a few weeks back when I started taking Ka-di-ok. I am free to confess that Ka-di-ok has done me a lot of good. After four years of misery I can really appreciate the change in my condition. Today I am feeling as well as I ever did in my whole life and nothing in the world did it but Ka-di-ok. I want every one to know what a fine remedy Ka-di-ok is. I have reached a point where I can eat anything I desire without any indignation afterwards. I sleep all through the night without getting up to urinate. I am stronger, I shall never forget a Ka-di-ok so long as I live; it is, in my judgment, the best remedy obtainable anywhere, and I hope others will profit by my experience.

double since 1915, and emphasized the idea that the utmost care must be used in expending the tax payers' money. He outlined as the broad principle of his administration that he wanted to be guided by "What the people of Portsmouth want done."

President Graves Williams assured Mayor Calvert that the members of the Exchange club were working for one object only—to arouse public sentiment for the things that are the best for Portsmouth. He said he felt safe in saying that the club would be solidly back of any projects which would result in a better city.

At the next meeting of the Exchange club Adam Erick, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will be a guest and will discuss projects coming under the scope of his organization.

The Exchange club plans later a campaign in co-operation with other local civic organizations to "Sell Portsmouth to Portsmouth People," by giving proper emphasis to the many advantages that the city enjoys.

The entertainment last night was provided by Doc Howard and "The Southerners," who are appearing at the Eastland this week. The Exchange club members showed their appreciation of good music and the orchestra responded by putting an added "zip" to their various selections. They and "The Southerners" sang some of the best selections were not allowed to stop until it was time for their appearance at the Eastland. They are a fine aggregation and deserving of all the good things that have been said about them, and of the liberal patronage which is being accorded the theater in which they are playing a week's engagement.

McADOO ADMITS HIS FIRM RECEIVED $150,000 FEE IN STEEL CORPORATION'S CASE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—(By the A. P.)—William G. McAdoo today partially corroborated what he termed "the Youngstown story" in a statement in which he said his former legal firm in New York had represented the Republic Iron & Steel Company before the treasury department for a total fee of $150,000.

Mr. McAdoo's statement in full follows: "Concerning the Youngstown story, I have no hesitation in saying that my former law firm in New York was employed as counsel for the Republic Iron & Steel Company, an independent concern, in a complicated tax matter at Washington. The case was heard in the regular legal way before the treasury department, and the testimony of the company, a semi-judicial body, composed of civil service men. Whether it came before the committee of Internal Revenue on appeal I do not recall. Briefs were filed and the case was argued several times. It involved very serious and important legal questions involving invested capital and was of interest to taxpayers throughout the United States. The amount involved was large.

Fee Reasonable, He Says
"The employment began November 19, at which time a retainer of $10,000 was paid, and the case was closed in the early part of 1921, whereupon an additional fee of $140,000 was paid the firm."

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 28.—(By The A. P.)—His fingers so numb by the cold that his hands had to be placed on the rip cord of his parachute, Corporal C. Eugene Conrad of Kelly Field today stepped from an airplane at an altitude of 21,500 feet and landed safely, establishing what is believed to be a record. Lieutenant Leland S. Andrews of Kelly Field, also thought to have made a world's record for airplanes not equipped with superchargers, when he piloted the 400-horse power Liberty motorized Deliafield airplane to that height.

Corporal Conrad landed in an alley in the residence district 23 minutes after the jump and was immediately surrounded by an eager throng of 1,000 school children.

The trip from Kelly Field started at 10:35 a. m., and two hours and ten minutes later the highest altitude obtainable by the Deliafield was reached.

Corporal Conrad climbed into the front seat occupied by Lieutenant Andrews to warm his hands by the heat of the motor. Lieutenant Andrews placed Corporal Conrad's hand upon the rip cord and the latter jumped. He estimated that it was about eight seconds after he left the ship before he attempted to pull the rip cord.

BOARD APPOINTED BY McADOO ENABLES OIL CROWD TO GET MILLIONS, IS G. O. P. CHARGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(By the A. P.)—A new charge in connection with oil matters is contained in a statement issued last night by the National Republican, the official organ of the Republican national committee. "Scores of millions of dollars," the statement said, "were wrongfully diverted from the federal treasury to the coffers of private oil companies through interpretations of the discovery act by a special treasury department board, constituted by Secretary McAdoo, all three members of which, upon their retirement, secured lucrative employment with the oil interests, one in New York, one in Los Angeles, and one in Washington, as did the two legal advisers of this board, one in New York, one in Los Angeles, and one in Washington, not to mention Secretary McAdoo himself."

Skating On Asphalt Streets Banned By Chief

The practice of children roller skating on asphalt streets is put under the ban by an order issued yesterday by Chief of Police Rome A. Taylor. According to this regulation "put the lid" on this practice, he said.

Commenting on this order, the chief said, "We have no desire to interfere with the sport of any boy or girl in the city, but our first duty is to look after the safety of the citizens of the city, and for this reason this dangerous amusement must be stopped, as a matter of protection to both the skater and motorist. The chief directed the officers to arrest anyone who persists in disobeying the police order."

Tigers Are Hampered By Cold Weather

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 28.—Plans of Manager T. Cobb to give his recruits agreed workout before the regular spring training grid begun, have been foiled partly by steady recommendation and cold weather, according to information reaching here from the camp at Augustus, Ga. Although the team has been in camp more than a week the weather has not permitted any appreciable amount of practice.

The first two days the Detroit athletes were able to get in a little training practice, but since then recommendation has prevented them appearing on the field at all.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, trouble, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—What do you think of a man who has been going with a woman over a year, and says he is not looking for a plumber to repair it? The last time I saw him he said he would call me up the next day, and he didn't call. If he ever calls, would you go with him?

BROWN EYES.
What you thought to be a good idea must have turned out to be a bad one in your heart, and he is probably looking for a plumber to repair it. If you are ever coming back, and you enjoy having a weeping willow around it, it would be all right to go with him.

Dear Dolly—A friend and I had a little argument about the lady that sang at the Auto Show. Is it the same one that sang at the show last year?

BROWN EYES.
She was not the same girl who sang at the Auto Show last year.

Dear Dolly—I have a blue wool porlet will skirt and I accidentally set a hot iron on the front of it and scorched it, and I would like for you to tell me how to take it off. I tried gasoline, but it did not do any good.

E. M. H.
What do you want to take off, the skirt or the scorched? It is probably a burn, instead of a scorched, and there is nothing you can do for it except to get a new piece for the skirt, or put some kind of blurring over it. If the burn doesn't go down, it might turn it to a scab. Peroxide will remove a scab in a jiffy from white goods, but it would take the color out of your blue skirt.

Olway, Ohio. Dear Dolly—When Warren G. Harding was elected president, there was a new protective tariff bill enacted. If so, can you tell me something about it? What was the name of the bill and how did it pass. Please tell me all about it.

EIGHTH GRADER.
The Fordney-McCumber tariff act was signed by the late President Harding on September 21, 1921, and it went into effect at 12 o'clock on September 22nd. It was over 90 months in the making. The Republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee began hearings on it January 6, 1921, which continued until February 16, and the bill passed the House July 21, 1921. It rested for eight months and three weeks in the Finance Committee of the Senate, and was reported April 14, 1922 to the Senate with 2,082 amendments. The Senate began consideration of it April 19, and adopted 2,436 amendments. It was passed by the Senate August 10th by a vote of 48 to 25 and was sent to the conference at once. The conference report was submitted to the House, September 12th, and on the 13th the House sent it back to the conference committee by a vote of 177 to 180 (102 Republicans joining with the Democrats) with instructions to eliminate the embargo on dyestuffs and the duty on potash. When submitted again with the changes it was adopted and the bill passed by a vote of 210 to 90 on September 14th. The Senate adopted the conference report as amended on September 19th by a vote of 43 to 23.

Dear Dolly—I am a very beautiful girl and have been living here quite a while. All the boys in this town seem to be just crazy about me. What would you do about it? I can not take them all and I don't know which one to take. I can't take them all, so what would you advise me to do?

M. C.
I would advise you to take them, one by one, one at a time. They won't last long with a girl who is as concerned as you seem to be.

SOCIAL NEWS

Mrs. Ely E. Brown entertained with a merry children's party on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Baird avenue in celebration of the eighth birthday anniversary of her son, Robert Tibbitts Brown. Various games and contests were played during the afternoon, and Mrs. Brown was awarded prizes in the guessing contests. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Brown was assisted by her young niece, Miss Jean Cissna, in serving a beautifully appointed pink and white ice course. The table was centered with a large white birthday cake moated with eight pink candles, and places were laid for Robert Tibbitts Brown, Maurice Bailey, Donald Ferguson, Val Heisel, Andrew Cullen, Frank Pulsing, David Cissna, Charles Baker, Billie Bauer, Paul Hilbert, Paul Mosely, Wells Crawford, Jack True, Charles Scudder, Harold Harshorn and George and Paul Russell.

Mrs. H. K. Bauer entertained a group of happy young children on Wednesday afternoon at her home, 1409 McConnell avenue, in celebration of the third birthday anniversary of her winsome young daughter, Marjorie Jane Bauer. The little tot was made merry with games and music until later in the afternoon, when they were served with brickle cream, cake and candy. A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the decorations, and the favors were small yellow Easter baskets filled with candies.

The little folks present included Marilyn Peel, Elizabeth Jordan, Ruby Gilmer, Esther Mae Wendelken, Esther Smith and the honor guest, Marjorie Jane Bauer.

Other guests present were Mrs. J. S. Black and Mrs. F. W. Bauer, grandmothers of little Marjorie Jane, and her mother, Mrs. H. K. Bauer.

Trouton's Community Choral Society put on their first concert in the auditorium of the First M. E. church in that city last evening. The concert was held by a large crowd, who were heartily pleased and quite enthusiastic over the wonderful progress the society has made under the capable direction of Prof. Elmer Ende of this city. The following complimentary paragraphs about the concert were taken from the morning Irontronian:

"The ladies' chorus, male chorus and mixed chorus were of the best; that could possibly be, the work taken from the noted composers, and Trouton proved last evening what talent she has and gave it to the large and appreciative audience, where they met with hearty applause."

"The choruses were accompanied by Miss Johanna Winkel, who is one of the city's young rising musicians, and it was greatly through her untiring efforts that the chorus selections were successful. Miss Winkel has exceptional talent and accuracy as an accompanist and pianist. Her technique is perfect, and too much praise cannot be said of her wonderful musical ability. Last evening she was accompanied with beautiful flowers from the Choral Club, expressing their deep appreciation of her excellent work for the past four months. Prof. Ende, who has so diligently and faithfully directed the choruses, is a conductor of note and is rapidly winning recognition from critics everywhere he has been. Prof. Ende's splendid personality and pleasing manner is an inspiration to the chorus, who have learned to love him for his sterling worth. By all means Trouton musical talent should not let the Community Chorus lag, but that this concert should be the beginning of greater achievements in musical lines. We have much splendid talent which is lying dormant—let us all awaken to our opportunity. Prof. Ende is a graduate of Chicago College of Music and New England Conservatory of Music of Boston, Mass., where he was a critic in various parts of music and is wonderful as a director. In his chosen life work in the music world in which he will rapidly gain fame."

"Miss Faye Ferguson, Trouton's noted artist, was the piano soloist for the evening, and too much cannot be said about her as she has repeatedly pleased Trouton music-lovers, and it is always a great delight to hear her. Miss Ferguson was at her best last evening and as she appeared on a platform beautifully gowned in a becoming evening dress, she was at once met with hearty applause, which she graciously received. Those who heard this young genius were unanimous in their praise and appreciation. The concert she rendered last evening was an exceptionally difficult one, but the wonderful skill with which it was given indicated the complete mastery of Miss Ferguson over the piano. Her technique, expression and sympathy were faultless. She carries a dignity of personality and charm of manner, and always lends added charm to her great work that is certain of success wherever she may go. She was forced to respond to encore, which she did. Prof. Ende played the orchestra accompaniment, which was exceedingly fine in this special number and proved he is a master of the wonderful art of music."

"The chorus will begin immediately to rehearse for the concert to be given in May, when the Portsmouth Community Concert singers will join them here for one evening and the Trouton Chorus will go to Portsmouth the next evening. Prof. Ende will give another concert in the First M. E. Church here next Tuesday evening, to which all are invited to attend."

ADVENTURE LIES OUT YONDER

A MOVIE craze is sweeping the Far North. Picture theatres in Alaska are doing record-breaking business. Audiences up there are not keen for snow country pictures showing hardships and struggles with nature. They get too much of that in daily life. The Alaskans prefer warm tropical scenes and ballroom and other spectacles portraying comfort and ease.

Here in civilization, life is "soft." We have, as everyday comforts, many services and conveniences that would be classed as luxuries in the Far North. The natural reaction is that we flock to pictures portraying hardships of the cold north or the burning desert.

In a life of hardships, people yearn for comforts. In a life of comforts, they are entranced by hardships. On a showdown, few would actually trade places with the other kind of life.

The lure of the distant is as strong as when the early explorers sailed daringly into unknown seas. Romance and adventure are scarce, so we associate them with the places far away. No matter how attractive things may be, most folks imagine better things lie on the other side of the hill.

Climbing to the top of the mountain, they look down into a valley much the same as the one they've just left. On, then, across other mountains.

The same spirit makes the radio bug more interested in long distance reception than in actual radio concerts.

Men's restlessness and dissatisfaction, his craving to venture into the unknown—these are the forces that have brought all progress, that have evolved the cave-dwelling brute into the comparatively high type of mentality of modern times.

Contentment breeds stagnation. Dissatisfaction generates progress. Curiosity leads to new discoveries. Accordingly, the fact that so many Americans are dissatisfied is a certain indication that rapid progress lies ahead.

FATAL

FATAL auto accidents have increased by half in five years. This is due, however, not to increased carelessness, but to the larger number of machines in use. The element of danger accompanying the average car is slowly but surely growing less. All this is the result of safety-first campaigns and more intelligent handling of traffic. We've made a good start in this direction, but there's still a long way to go.

Accidents, almost without exception, originate in someone's carelessness.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—In one of the outposts of the Tenderloin the other morning sat a group of girls who once entertained in cabarets and on the stage. The cafe had emptied, but they remained rather than go to troubled sleep.

Dissipation had left its tarnish. The bloom of youth had faded. One was a red-haired musical comedy prima donna of yesteryear. Her blue serge suit was worn as slick as a mirror. Another was a glitzy-busky comedienne.

Others had been in the chorus and more than 30. At the suggestion of a "heavy sugared" wine buyer they did impromptu songs, dances and skits. The head-waiter, anxious to close, characterized them as "a bunch of luscious doing their stuff."

It was as though doddering ghosts were dragging their creaking bones across the floor. The prima-donna tried an old aria—cracked on a high note and swore a vicious oath. The comedienne revived an old scene of a popular musical comedy. It was pathetic.

Their attitude was that of youthful and flippant toughness. Moral disintegration loomed through the broad jokes and coarse vulgarities of the dancing. Here were girls who came from farm-houses and villages to be tripped up by the killing pace.

As a rule they are undone by the White Way brand of good fellowship. There are always bachelors, apartment hunters to welcome them after the theatre. Here they are flattered, whined and dined. Lack of sleep and alcohol do their work.

An old-timer observes the theatre is one place where girls do not "come back." It used to be that they slipped easily down to the Bowery beer halls. But these places are gone. The only thing left is polite cadging in cheap cafes.

Broadway's most popular after dinner speech: "Waiter, put it all on one check."

It is a vast estate in Westchester given over to the cure of pampered hypochondriacs. It costs more to live there in a single room than in the most expensive hotel suite in New York. The head physician is a handsome athletic type adept at honeyed flattery. He gives no medicine and the only rule is that each "patient" must walk nine miles a day. He was asked how many people in his sanatorium were really in poor health. "Not a one," was his reply. "Their only trouble is too much money."

There is a diet kitchen on Thirty-Fourth Street that advertises: "We welcome dyspeptics."

A shabby old man asleep in a subway express train had a sign pinned on his coat reading: "Please don't awaken me. I'm just tired." New York's heart was touched. A collection was taken up among the passengers and $15 was raised. It was placed in an inside pocket and a kind-hearted subway detective agreed to ride with the old fellow until he awakened and ward off pickpockets.

One of the mysteries of New York is how the accomplished subway sleepers manage to awaken promptly as the train nears their station. They cannot explain it themselves. It just happens. One man who has been riding home at midnight for six years and never fails to drop off to sleep and never has failed to awaken as the train pulls into his station.
